

Proclamation
Presented to
IBM Corporation

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation will celebrate its 100th Anniversary as a corporation on June 16, 2011; and

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation has created and applied technology to make the world work better; and

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation has more than 400,000 IBMers around the world, who invent and integrate software, hardware, and services to enable forward thinking enterprises, institutions, and people everywhere to succeed; and

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation incorporates learning from its history to increase understanding of the contribution the modern IBM can make; and

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation deepens its engagement with society, strengthening existing relationships, and developing new ones to drive progress in the world; and

WHEREAS, the IBM Corporation shapes a shared view of the future together with the clients and communities we serve in support of a smarter planet;

THEREFORE I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, BRIAN SCHATZ, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim June 16, 2011, as in Hawai'i and would like to recognize the IBM Corporation for 100 years of outstanding service to our local communities.

"IBM CORPORATION DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this sixteenth day of May, 2011.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

BRIAN SCHATZ
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i